

MARIAH N. HARRISON

Community Partnerships Coordinator, CELR, University College

Mariah09@unm.edu

COMMUNITY & SERVICE-ORIENTED & PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

- Research, interview, and writing skills around community planning and social profit initiatives
- Experience coordinating public/private partnerships, volunteer events in New Orleans post-Katrina
- Large-scale event planning with community enrichment and information sharing focus (TEDxABQ)
- Experience advising and teaching students about academic programs and preparing for professional goals
- Skills in training, public speaking, research, presentation, small and large group facilitation, diversity and staff development skills

EDUCATION

Master of Arts in Community and Regional Planning

Tau Sigma Delta Honor Society – Magna Cum Laude

University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, New Mexico

July 2012

GPA: 3.77

MCRP Professional Project

<http://rebuildpostdisaster.wordpress.com> Personal Stories on the Road to Recovery: Resources for Rebuilding Homes Post-Disaster

Bachelor of University Studies

Concentrations in Middle Eastern and Southeast Asian cultures

University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, New Mexico

May 2002

3.0 scholarship index

TRAINING AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

International Association for Research on Service-Learning & Community Engagement 2015 Conference

Women's Leadership Certificate (November 2015)

Non-Profit Management Certificate (May 2015)

Bi-Annual UNM Academic Advising Association Conferences Planning Committee and Presenter (2009-current)

National Academic Advising Association (2004-2007, 2010-present) (Presenter 2015)

MEMBERSHIPS/VOLUNTEER WORK

Impact & Coffee Planning Committee (Current)

Albuquerque Road Runners Board – Secretary (Current) (Received 1 of 4 national scholarships to attend 2016 conference)

Volunteer for TEDxABQ (Volunteer Coordinator 2010), TEDxABQ Women (2012), TEDxABQ (2012/2013)

All Faiths Annual Crab Bash Volunteer (2013)

Celebrity Waiter for Cystic Fibrosis Foundation of New Mexico Benefit (2010, 2011)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Senior Student Success Specialist – Liberal Arts & Integrative Studies

University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, NM

2004-2007, 2009-present

- Support programming for Community Engaged Learning and Research; participate in university/community Forum planning; manage partner and resource database
- Assist approximately 800 undergraduates semesterly with resolution of academic difficulties, completion of graduation requirements, and attaining professional goals.
- Manage Alumni database, outreach, and philanthropic ventures

- Analyze and evaluate complex transcripts, petitions, and multiple student issues to ensure impartial outcomes.
- Assist in formulation of policies and procedures for curriculum, student admission, suspension and departmental partnerships.
- Help to expand the bachelors program through eight branch campuses state-wide; train branch advisors.
- Participation in professional development committees and initiatives.
- Create and update materials for and participate in at least five recruitment events per semester; lead at least three program seminars per semester; present at least two conferences per year.
- Writing and editing of website, program guide, catalog and marketing materials; manage social media outreach.

Program Coordinator

2008-2009

Center for Public Service, Tulane University, New Orleans, LA

- Coordinated Service Learning orientations, projects and evaluations for students in 28 courses per semester.
- Assisted faculty members in partnering with appropriate community organizations and events.
- Created and managed the Service Learning Assistant work-study program.
- Coordinated and recruited for CPS Public Service abroad program in Malaysia.
- Supported CPS semesterly faculty seminar and student Showcase.
- Assisted in coordination of events and group volunteer projects for Clinton Global Initiative University.

Team Leader

2002-2003

AmeriCorps*National Civilian Community Corps, SE Region

- Supervised team of nine through 10 months of service to rural and urban communities; lead team building and conflict resolution sessions; mentored members with personal and leadership development.
- Managed project logistics with sponsors, team building, budgetary expenses, and reports.
- Conducted project and member evaluations.
- Built one home and seven home frames with Habitat for Humanity, Richmond/Berea, KY.
- Tutored special needs students in Charleston, SC.
- Cleared 15 miles of canoe trail in Okefenokee Swamp, GA; maintained eight miles of hiking trail in Johnson City/Appalachia, TN; built lake wall and boardwalks at YMCA Camp, Greenville, NC; numerous other small projects.

PEER REVIEWED PRESENTATION

"Mapping New Urbanism on a University Campus Located in a Disaster Prone Region: A Service Learning Approach"
David Gray, Mariah Harrison, Elizabeth Davey, Rick Duque, Tulane University, 2009. Society for the Study of Social Problems (SSSP) Annual Conference, San Francisco, August 2009. An evaluation of university plans to reduce CO2 emissions on campus and meet a climate impact commitment.